CHAPTER 32.

CHAPTER I.

1 Isaiah complaineth of Judah for her rebellion. 5 He lamenteth her judgments. 10 He upbraideth their whole service. 16 He exhorteth to repentance, with promises and threatenings. 25 He promiseth grace, 28 and threateneth destruction to the wicked.

26 ¹Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, ²Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

27 And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that ³are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.

28 Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, ⁴let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear:

DAN 8v11-13

11 Yea, ¹he magnified himself even ²to ³the prince of the host, and ⁴by him ⁵the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.

12 And ¹an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down ²the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered.

13 ¶ Then I heard ¹one saint speaking, and another saint said unto ²that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression ³of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot?

24 Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, ¹to finish the transgression, and ²to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and ³prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.

25 Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment ¹to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street ²shall be built again, and the ³wall, even ⁴in troublous times.

26 And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, ¹but not for himself: ²and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary, and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

27 And he shall confirm ¹the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, ²and ³for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured ⁴upon the desolate.

20 And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh.

21 Then let them which are in Judæa flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.

22 For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.

MATT 24v15-18

15 When ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (^m whoso readeth, let him understand:)

16 Then let them which be in Judæa flee into the mountains:

17 Let him which is on the housetop not come down to take any thing out of his house:

18 Neither let him which is in the field return back to take his clothes.
