When Alexander's sarcophagus was brought from its shrine, Augustus gazed at the body, then laid a crown of gold on its glass case and scattered some flowers to pay his respects.

Crucifixion

Although the Romans did not invent crucifixion they perfected it as a form of torture and capital punishment ... Crucifixion probably began among the Persians. Alexander the great introduced the practice to Egypt and Carthage, and the Romans appear to have learned it from the Carthaginians.

Journal of the American Medical Association, v255, n11, p1458

Thy King Cometh Unto Thee

Then Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord: and one said unto him, Is all well? Wherefore came this mad fellow unto thee? And he said unto them, Ye know the man, and his communication.

And they said, it is false; tell us now. And he said, Thus and thus spake he to me, saying, Thus saith Yahweh, I have anointed thee King over Israel.

Then they hasted, and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the top of the stairs, and blew with trumpets, saying, Jehu is king.

2Kings 9:11-13

Thy King Cometh Unto Thee

And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.

For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.

For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul?

That then Yahweh thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations, whither Yahweh thy God hath scattered thee.

Not day, Nor night,
But it shall come to pass that at evening
Time there shall be light.
