20 And as she rode on the donkey and came down under cover of the mountain, behold, David & his men came down toward her, & she met them.
21 Now David had said, “Surely in vain have I guarded all that this fellow has in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that belonged to him, & he has returned me evil for good.
22 God do so to the enemies of David & more also, if by morning I leave so much as one male of all who belong to him.”

Now then, my lord, as the LORD lives, and as your soul lives, because the LORD has restrained you from bloodguilt and from saving with your own hand, now then let your enemies and those who seek to do evil to my lord be as Nabal.

Please forgive the trespass of your servant. For the LORD will certainly make my lord a sure house, because my lord is fighting the battles of the LORD, and evil shall not be found in you so long as you live.

And when the LORD has done to my lord according to all the good that HE HAS SPOKEN CONCERNING YOU and has appointed you prince over Israel...

32 David said to Abigail, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Israel, who sent you this day to meet me!
33 BLESSED BE YOUR DISCRETION, and blessed be you, who have kept me this day from bloodguilt and from avenging myself with my own hand!
34 For as surely as the LORD the God of Israel lives, who has restrained me from hurting you, unless you had hurried and come to meet me, truly by morning there had not been left to Nabal so much as one male.”
35 Then David received from her hand what she had brought him. And he said to her, “Go up in peace to your house. See, I have obeyed your voice, and I have granted your petition
