

Agape

Agape means love which particularly includes the judgment and intellect, and involves the conscious and deliberate decision to commit to something, as a matter of principle.

Agape love can subsume phileo love under its broader definition and more comprehensive application. It's a consuming, encompassing love.

Peter
Fisher of Men

Agape

1. Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not agape, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.
2. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not agape, I am nothing.
3. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not agape, it profiteth me nothing.

Phileo love

26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:

27 for the Father himself phileo you, because ye have phileo me, and have believed that I came out from God.

John 16v26-27

Phileo

Phileo is an affectionate love, as that between friends who have many things in common, a fondness, a sentimental attachment to something, a warm emotional connection.

Feed the flock

v15 Feed my lambs. Feed, nourish, nurture. Look after the young and immature. Educate and guide them.

v16 Feed my sheep. Rule and govern the older members.

v17 Feed my sheep. Feed, nourish, nurture. Look after the older members. Educate and guide them.

Feeding sheep

15 As the Father knoweth me, even so know I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.

16 And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

17 Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again.

18 No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father.
