SESSION 1

Amos 6

V1: Woe to you who are at ease in Zion, and trust in Mount Samaria, notable persons in the chief nation, to whom the house of Israel comes!

V3: Woe to you who put far off the day of doom, who cause the seat of violence to come near;

V4: who lie on beds of ivory, stretch out on your couches, eat lambs from the flock and calves from the midst of the stall;

V5: who sing idly to the sound of stringed instruments, and invent for yourselves musical instruments like David;

V6: who drink wine from bowls, and anoint yourselves with the best ointments, . . but are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.”

Haggai 1

V4: “Is it time for you yourselves to dwell in your paneled houses, and this temple to lie in ruins?”

V7: “Thus says the Lord of hosts:
“Consider your ways!”

Revelation 3:16-18

“So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of My mouth.

Because you say, ‘I am rich, have become wealthy, and have need of nothing’—and do not know that you are wretched, miserable, poor, blind, and naked—

I counsel you to buy from Me gold refined in the fire, that you may be rich; and white garments, that you may be clothed, that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and anoint your eyes with eye salve, that you may see.”

Amos 6

Discussion & Meditation Questions

1. Do you agree that the influx of technology and the Web are inescapable? Or is there more we could do to avoid it like Abraham did Sodom?
2. If Abraham could see the threat of Sodom, why couldn't Lot? Why is it hard for us to see the problems in things we love?

The Wisdom of God

Deut. 4:25-26:

“When you beget children and grandchildren and have grown old in the land, and act corruptly and make a carved image in the form of anything, and do evil in the sight of the Lord your God to provoke Him to anger, I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that you will soon utterly perish from the land which you cross over the Jordan to possess; you will not prolong your days in it, but will be utterly destroyed.”

The Wisdom of God

Deut. 4:40:

“You shall therefore keep His statutes and His commandments which I command you today, that it may go well with you and with your children after you, and that you may prolong your days in the land which the Lord your God is giving you for all time.”

Adults need to set the example!

2. How do we help young people avoid idolatry via technology in an increasingly electronic world?

Ephesians 4:11-13

“And He Himself gave some to be apostles, some prophets, some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers, for the equipping of the saints for the work of ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ, till we all come to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God,”

Discussion & Meditation Questions

1. What can we do to improve and support essential faith-building events in our community of believers?
2. How do we resist or shut off the 24x7 pull of online communities that separate us from the body of Christ?

Applications

- Young people need to see past technology to the other aspects of life on which elders are experts
- We should facilitate more opportunities for elders and young people to engage in joint territory
- Elders should try to develop competency in technologies used by the ecclesia
- Young people should go out of their way to obtain guidance from respected elders

Discussion & Meditation Questions

1. What prevents young people from respecting and valuing the wisdom of elders? How do we overcome that?
2. How do we bridge the communication gap caused by technology?

Psalm 78:1-7

“Give ear, O my people, to my law; incline your ears to the words of my mouth. I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings of old, which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us. We will not hide them from their children, telling to the generation to come the praises of the Lord, and His strength and His wonderful works that He has done. For He established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, which He commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children; that the generation to come might know them, the children who would be born, that they may arise and declare them to their children, that they may set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep His commandments;”

but no urge to be productive.

It's wanting friends
but hating to socialize.

It's wanting to be alone,
but not wanting to be lonely.
It's caring about everything,

Depression, anxiety, suicide increase in teens and young adults, study finds

BY ASHLEY WELCH

MARCH 14, 2019 / 9:26 AM / CBS NEWS

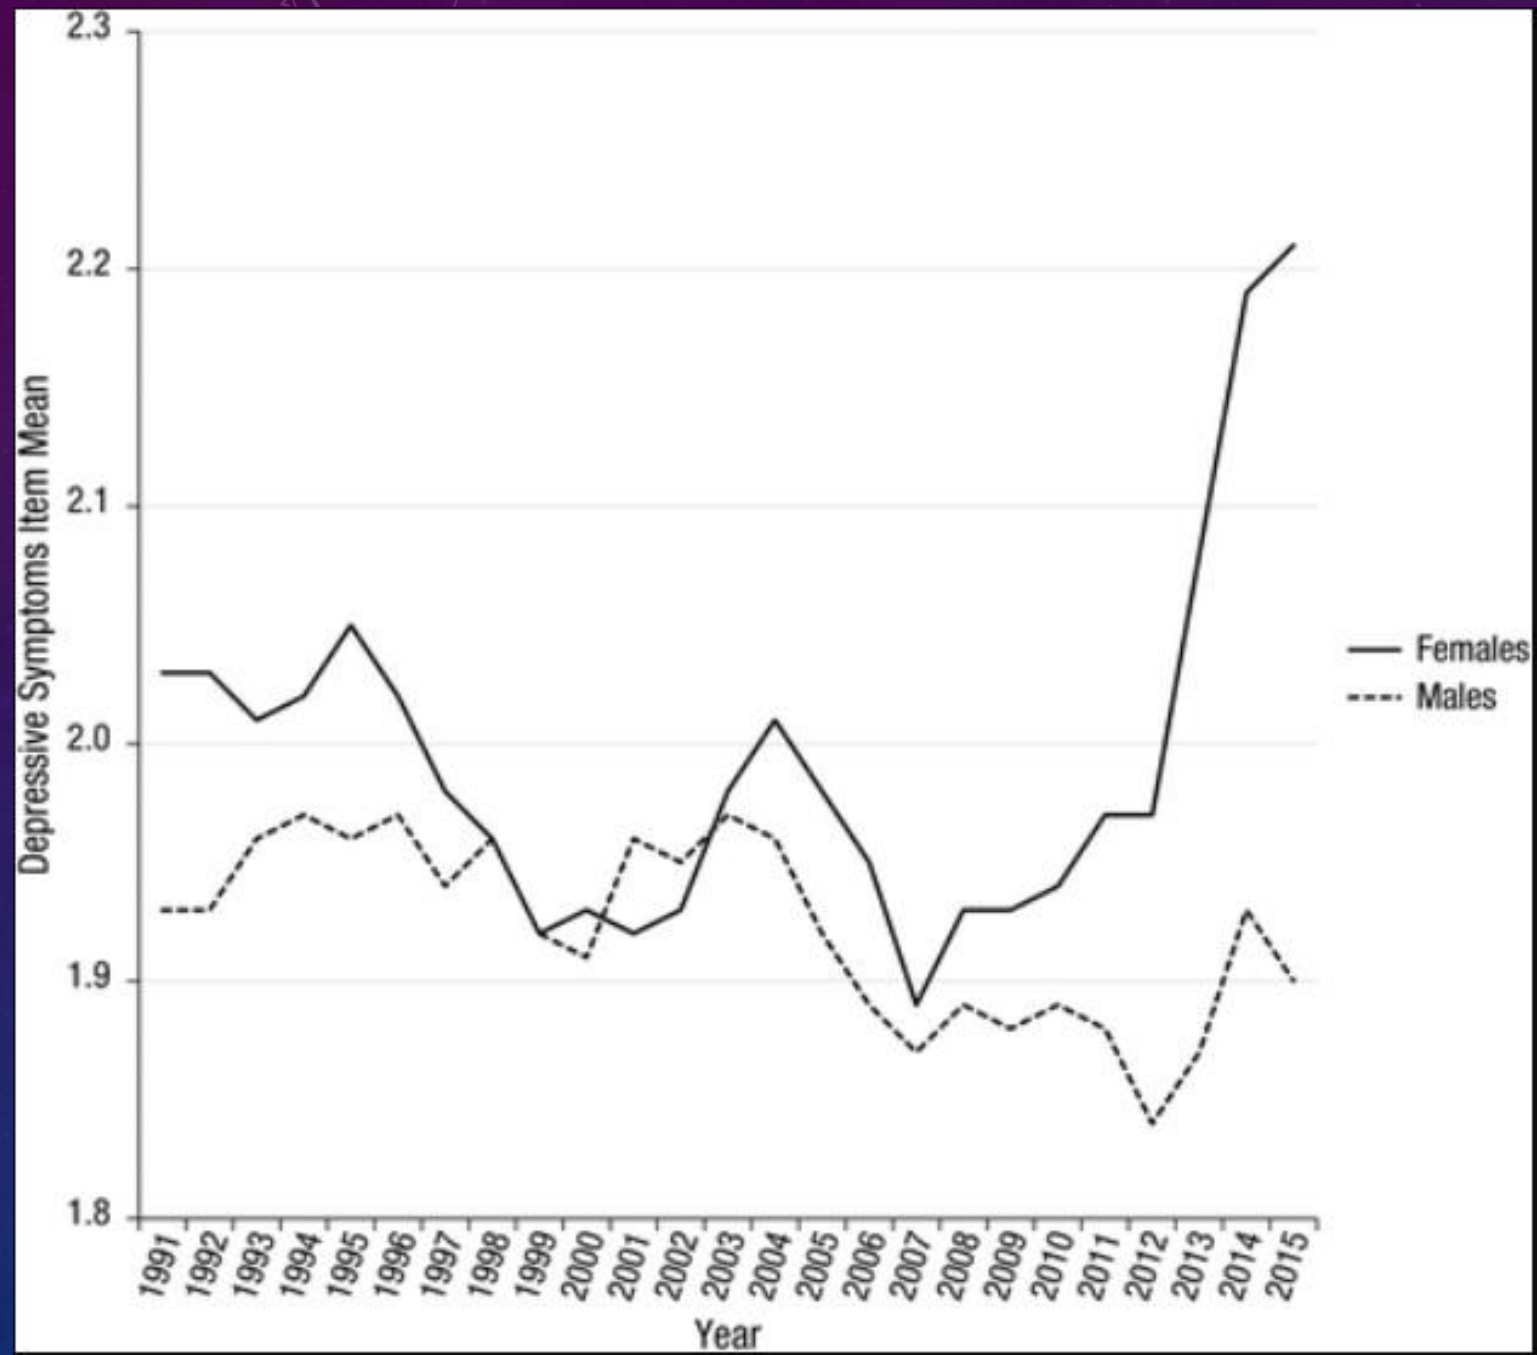

More American teens and young adults appear to be struggling with mental health issues, and experts believe a number of cultural trends may help explain why. A new study found the percentage of teens and young adults with depression, anxiety and other mental health issues has increased sharply over the past decade. The same pattern was not seen in older adults.

"Recently, there's been a number of studies showing that those who spend more time on digital media are more likely to be depressed and unhappy," Twenge said.

Social Issues

Mental health problems rise significantly among young Americans

The report, published Thursday in the American Psychological Association's Journal of Abnormal Psychology, looked at survey data from more than 600,000 adolescents and adults. It found that in the past 10 to 12 years, the number of people reporting symptoms indicative of major depression increased 52 percent among 12- to 17-year-olds and 63 percent among 18- to 25-year-olds; the rate for both groups is now 13.2 percent. Serious psychological distress and suicide-related thoughts or actions also rose by 70 percent in young adults, from 7.7 percent to 13.1 percent.

Abstract

In two nationally representative surveys of U.S. adolescents in grades 8 through 12 ($N = 506,820$), adolescents' depressive symptoms, suicide-related outcomes, and suicide rates increased between 2010 and 2015, especially among females. Adolescents who spent more time on new media (including social media and electronic devices such as smartphones) were more likely to report mental health issues, and adolescents who spent more time on nonscreen activities (in-person social interaction, sports/exercise, homework, print media, and attending religious services) were less likely.

Discussion & Meditation Questions

1. How do we educate our young people about the pitfalls of social media? At what age should they join?
2. How are we adults using social media? Are we setting a good example?
3. Are we enjoying our luxuries, focused on our homes, and blind to the problems technology is causing?
