Speak out!
Beginning in 312 AD

But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he begins to sound, the mystery should be finished, as he declared to his servants the prophets.

And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and thy belly shall be in thy mouth as honey.

And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it, and it was in my mouth as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and kings.

CHAPTER II.

The two witnesses that prophesy. 14 The voice is past. 15 The seventh trumpet.

And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein.

But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.

And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand and two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth.

These are the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.
